DRAFT 3/9

Hello,

As you may be aware, there are outstanding environmental issues at the AltEn, LLC facility located in Mead, Nebraska, which utilizes as feedstock treated seed from the recipients of this email. Significant response actions are needed to address the issues at the facility. Due to the scope of those actions, EPA and the Nebraska Department of Environment and Energy would like to schedule a virtual meeting to discuss the potential role you could play in assisting with the response.

Background information, including links to the NDEE's public record portal with sampling data, past inspections, and site visits, is available at <http://dee.ne.gov/Press.nsf/pages/AltEn>.

We propose a Microsoft Teams call for Friday, March 12 at 11:00 CST. Participating for EPA Region 7 will be myself and Candace Bednar, Chief of the Chemical Branch of the Region 7 Enforcement and Compliance Assurance Division. Participants for NDEE will be . We look forward to exploring a path forward with you, and hope that you will participate in the Thursday meeting. Replies to this message should be sent to me at this email address.

Thank you for your attention to this matter –

Dave—

Thanks for letting me know. I was generally aware of the NE action, but did not know about these specific activities. We will connect with WCED about next steps tomorrow.

Rosemarie
